

Coordination Skills

As an ASHA you are a link between health care services and the community. Therefore, you are expected to regularly coordinate with various stakeholders and the community.

