Temperature: Measure and Record							If baby's temperature is more than 99 degree Fahrenheit (37.2 degree Celsius), refer.	Yes/No
							If it is between 95.1 97 degree Fahrenheit (35.1-36.1 degree Celsius), ask mother to feed baby frequently, keep the baby warm.
							If temperature of baby is less than 95 degree F (35 degree Celsius), do hypothermia management.
Skin: Pus filled pustules	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Treat with gentian violet and observe for signs of sepsis.	Yes/No
Cracks or redness on the skin fold (thigh/Axilla /Buttock)	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Keep baby clean and dry.	Yes/No
Yellowness in eyes or skin: Jaundice	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	Yes/No	If it is on the first day or beyond 14 th day, then it is abnormal jaundice. Refer the baby to hospital.	Yes/No
Give health education to the mother on day 2 Give high risk baby information sheet on day 2	er on day 2 neet on day	2			Yes/No Yes/No	Give dang 2- Yes/No	Give danger sign information sheet to parents on Day 2- Yes/No	arents on Day

